Turtle Splash Water Park announces season pass sale dates

West Chicago, Ill. — Individual passes for Turtle Splash Water Park will be available for purchase or renewal beginning Tuesday, Jan. 3 for the 2012 swim season at the West Chicago Park District administrative office located at 157 W. Washington St.

Buy your season pass early and save. The price before Friday, Apr. 13, 2012 is $55 for residents; $70 for nonresidents. The price after April 13 to May 4 for an individual pass will be $60 for residents and $75 for nonresidents. After May 4 the fee is $65 for residents and $85 for nonresidents.

Turtle Splash Water Park is a 5-acre enclosed aquatic facility that provides hours of fun for the entire family and includes a 12' pool waterfall, a black hole water slide, zero depth entry, body flume and tube slides, a tot slide with a child play feature in the shallow end, two playgrounds, changing rooms and showers, free parking, bike racks, and a full-service concession stand.

During the summer months the pool holds lessons for beginners, intermediate and advanced swimmers in addition to Parent/Tot swim lessons, Preschool swim lessons, Splash N' Fit classes, and private swim lessons.

Party packages and group rentals are available at a variety of prices. Services and prices vary.

Follow the West Chicago Park District and Turtle Splash Water Park daily on Facebook and Twitter for up-to-the-minute information on swim lessons, special park events, and happenings.

For additional information or to book your party now call 630.231.9474 or visit the West Chicago Park District's website at www.we-goparks.org.
