November News Briefs

UPCOMING...

Thanksgiving Dinner, Thursday, Nov. 10 from 11:30 a.m.-2 p.m. at Wood Glen, 199 W. North Ave. Join us for a traditional turkey, and mashed potato dinner as we gather to give thanks for friends, health, and happiness. Turkey, potatoes, dessert and a place setting will be provided. Please bring a dish to pass. The cost is $13.

DAYTRIPPING...

It's a Wonderful Life, Thursday, Dec. 1, 11:45 a.m.-4:30 p.m., Pheasant Run Dinner Theater, St. Charles. You'll become a part of a 1940s live broadcast as actors bring the fateful story of George Bailey to life in this Frank Capra classic. As a member of the audience you'll relive this holiday story that includes songs, live commercials, instruments, and a six-member children's choir. The fee is $48 for residents; $56 for nonresidents and includes lunch.

GIFT CERTIFICATES...

West Chicago Park District Gift Certificates are the perfect gift for everyone on your list this Christmas. Tuck one in a stocking or put one in a card. All dollar amounts are available and can be used for Park District classes and programs, fitness classes, events, recreational activities, and more! For more information call 630.231.9474.

October Fish Fry a huge success!

Thank you to all who attended our October Fish Fry. The fish was delish and the variety of desserts and side dishes were unsurpassed in the culinary world. All had a great time. A special thank you to the West Chicago Fire Protection District and Park District employees who helped to “catch” and prepare the fish, in addition to set up and driving.
